Hello Peter,

I left you a voicemail just now on both your office and cell phones and sent you a text, all with the same message. After conferring with the project team, it appears that we will not be fully prepared to submit all the documentation required by the DRC with the sufficient advance notice that the Committee requests. Accordingly, we are requesting a continuance of the matter until the DRC meeting on August 3rd. This should keep us on track to go back before the Planning Board on August 10th. Kindly confirm receipt and advise as to whether further information may be necessary.

Grace Be With You,

Terry
